Can the EU ban the use of Windows 10? By now, you would have heard that Microsoft has stopped support of Windows 7 and Windows 8. In fact, Microsoft has already given Windows 10 a mid-life cycle upgrade, and it has announced that the next version, OS 15, will be available for download in late 2016. However, Windows 10 isn't the only Microsoft OS that is getting an upgrade to Windows 10. What about Windows Server 2016 and Windows Server 2019? Well, both these operating systems will be getting Windows 10 out of the box, making them part of the new Windows 10 operating system. This move is not surprising, as both of these operating systems are about to release. In fact, both Windows Server 2016 and Windows Server 2019 will be released mid to late 2016.
